

March 6, 2018

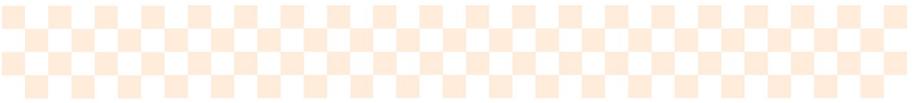

Dear Coaches,

I would like to introduce myself. My name is Jeremy Pruitt and I have the privilege of serving as the Head Coach of the University of Tennessee Football Program. My goal is to win national championships and restore Tennessee Football to a level of prominence that exhibits the rich history and tradition that makes this program special.

As a former high school football coach and the son of a high school football coach, I appreciate the blood, sweat and tears that you all pour into your student-athletes to teach them the fundamentals of football while preparing them for the game of life. You are the most important people in the game.

I want to let you know that as high school football coaches, you guys are always welcome on our campus and at our football facility. You all are also more than welcome to attend any football practice you would like. While practices are closed to the general public, they will always be open to high school coaches. Please just make sure that you contact Todd Watson, Director of Football Operations, any time that you would like to attend a practice so that we can provide you with a credential. Todd can be reached via email at todd.watson@utk.edu.

I would also like to inform you all that the Tennessee Football Coaches Clinic will take place from April 5-April 7, 2018. In addition to hearing Coach Phillip Fullmer, Peyton Manning and Coach David Cutcliffe, you will also have the opportunity to take part in small-group chalk-talk sessions with our assistant football coaches here at UT during the Thursday night social and hear from new Titans Head Coach, Mike Vrabel. You will also have the opportunity to watch practice on Thursday and attend our scrimmage Saturday afternoon at Neyland Stadium. We're excited about this clinic.

Please go to www.tennesseesportcamps.com to register. You may register and pay online; mail a paper registration form; or you can register on-site the day of the clinic. I look forward to meeting you and seeing you on Rocky Top!

Thank you for your time and as always, Go Vols!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. Pruitt".

Jeremy Pruitt

Head Football Coach

University of Tennessee